The Absolutely Poetry Group is one of the most innovative communities on Facebook. It provides a safe space in which writers from any and every background can come together to share their poetry, perform their work and gain instant feedback from their peers. Produced by the group, this second anthology represents the creative work of more than 70 poets from across 5 continents. Sales from the first Anthology (2021) raised much need funds for the international charity Save The Children, and this second volume aims to do exactly the same. The poetry is rich and diverse, covering a variety of styles and themes, and is a collection that will delight and entertain. The age range of the contributors ranges from 11 to 94 years. Each of the 178 poems in this volume was carefully selected by group founders John Rennie, Imelda Garcia, and series editor Steve Wheeler based on rigorous criteria.
