How is it that some life changes can happen in a blink of an eye?

The life of Samantha Calls, AKA Sam, changed just that quickly. More like a drop of a dime, since Sam did some dropping.

She thought that she was living the life she was born to live.

But a hospital visit and health problems changed her thinking, making her adjust her life to a whole different tone.

Samantha had an ideal life—going to work with the fellows, playing hard with the fellows, and loving like the fellows. And the next day, she would do it all over again. Until one day, it all changed. No more job she had been at for years. No more being able to go to the gym with the guys. Her health had gotten to a dark place.

Sam went from the headstrong woman she had worked hard into becoming to a fragile flower that she thought would never be her.

Relationships changed. Everything got twisted and different like her health. It was awkward. There were so many awkward beginnings, all bum-rushed on Sam so quickly.

But Sam went to the right doctor. The right doctor indeed.
