This is a story of a rescue greyhound called Wilson seen through his own eyes....Wilson tells his story of being rescued by new owners moving into a domestic home and enjoying his new life beyond the racetrack.

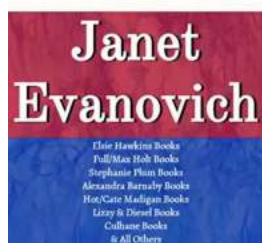

Wilson was rescued from Leicestershire Greyhound Trust when he was five years old he enjoyed a racing career of 100 races winning 14 and coming second 18 times and raced under the name of Rabbini.

His owners Mark & Catherine have taken him into their home where he enjoys a luxury and happy life living in a sleepy Leicestershire village.

This first time author Mark whilst furloughed from his full time sales job has imaginatively told Wilsons factual story as the dog might see it using observations of human behaviour in a quite often touching and humorous way.

25% of profits made from this publication will be donated to The Greyhound Trust who work tirelessly in working towards a world where every greyhound finds a safe, loving home in retirement.
