A girl protected by two wolves.

A nerd determined to challenge scientific boundaries.

A psychopath bent on reshaping the world.

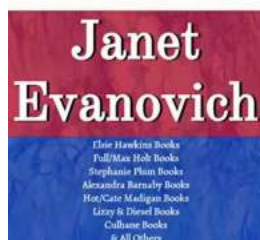

A destiny that won't be denied.

Kiera's capacity to face death stems from training, begun when old enough to wield a knife. Befriended by wolves and raised by a group of psychic men sworn to protect humanity, she now faces mercenaries intent on reshaping the world using equal talents.

Prodigious keyboard skills and innate curiosity has led Wyatt McGlauklin to invent the unimaginable. He's long since claimed status as the top computer science geek. Little do people know, there's much more to Wyatt. When a blonde spitfire steps out of nowhere to prevent his assassination, his life's direction takes an extraordinary turn where his analytical mind can't validate paranormal phenomena.

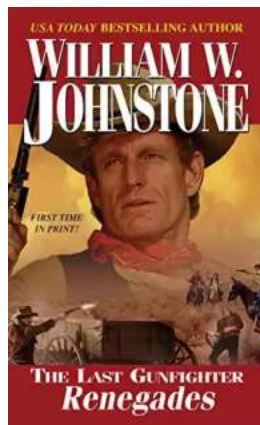

Fate decrees Kiera find her life partner, but she learns you don't always get to choose whom you love. Wyatt's arrival challenges destiny as they combine forces to preserve the world as they know it.
