He's known as Doctor Sexy. Great. Just what I need.

As a single mom, I'm concerned about my little girl and rebuilding my life.

My ex is a piece of work, and I ain't talking about art.

I've sworn off men for forever, even while facing the wedding fever that's spilling over from my best friend's wedding.

But there's something about the doc. He's way more than he appears to be.

And he cares about his patients and his staff.

Eye roll Nope. Seriously. He's a billionaire from some invention, but he's not interested in sipping drinks on a beach.

He's fully dedicated to saving lives and helping people.

At least that's the story on the street.

I'm just working hard not to fall for his good looks or wicked smile.

Surprisingly, the sparks between us could light up a New Year's skyline.

Against my better judgment, I find myself loving his attention.

My ex, however, does not.

When blows come to blows, my hot doc isn't backing down.

He's got one message for my past mistake—she's mine now.

Yes. Yes, I am.

Every good girl deserves a bad boy. ~ Weston
