My fake date is accidentally the girl I helped on prom night years ago.

How these things happen, I'll never know.

I just need a fake date for my ex-girlfriend's wedding.

No way I'm going to it alone. And let her think she got the best of me?
Nope.

I'm happier single anyway. I have my company, my billions, and my planes.

But back to the drama...

I hire a girl to help me pretend my love life is put together, but she happens to be a blast from the past.

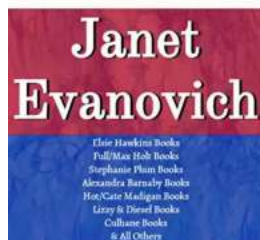

We never dated, but I was there on prom night when her life fell apart. And being the good guy I am, I let her cry on my shoulder.

But she's not a girl anymore. And something about her has me wanting to break all the rules and give in.

I'm falling hard, but her? She's still faking it for love.

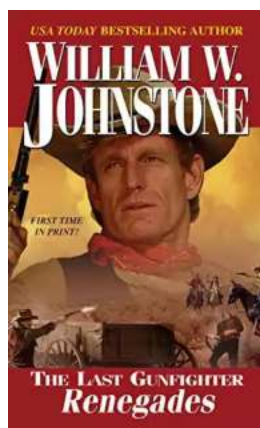

Every good girl deserves a bad boy. ~ Weston
