Finding joy in life's small, everyday pleasures.

"Utterly delightful does not begin to describe 31 Poems of Joy. This beautifully crafted work of art is like a gift to be opened and savoured; each new poem a joyful surprise."

The 31 short poems in this collection focus on those seemingly small, uneventful moments in the author's everyday life that are easy to overlook - a cat nap, watching TV with her children, driving home from the store. Through the process of mindful noticing, they take on a new resonance, and both the act of writing the poem and the poems themselves become precious moments of joy.
