The most feel-good fake relationship romance novels typically revolve around two characters who, for various reasons, agree to pretend to be in a relationship. As the story unfolds, their fake relationship begins to feel remarkably real, blurring the lines between fiction and reality. With engaging storylines, well-developed characters, and swoon-worthy romance, these books are guaranteed to leave you feeling giddy and satisfied.

One highly recommended title in the fake relationship romance genre is "Under the Tuscan Sun." This novel takes place in the picturesque region of Tuscany, where a young woman named Frances decides to embark on a spontaneous adventure after her marriage ends. She finds herself renovating an old villa and, in an attempt to help her feel more settled, her friends set her up with a fellow expat. What follows is a heartwarming tale of unexpected love, personal growth, and the power of second chances.

If you prefer a lighter, more comedic take on the genre, then "The Italian Proposal" is the book for you. In this delightful romantic comedy, Emma, a struggling American artist, finds herself pretending to be engaged to a handsome Italian billionaire. As they navigate the complexities of their fake relationship, hilarious mishaps and genuine sparks of attraction ensue.

Prepare to laugh out loud while also swooning over the undeniable chemistry between the two main characters.

So, whether you are craving a real-life escape to Italy or a fictional getaway through the pages of a book, the combination of The Perfect Escape To Italy and the Most Feel Good Fake Relationship Romantic is sure to provide you with an unforgettable experience. Immerse yourself in the beauty of Italy while indulging in a heartwarming and enchanting love story. It's time to let your imagination take flight and allow these stories to sweep you off your feet.

Dream job. Dream house. Fake fiancé.

A year in a gorgeous Italian castle...

When Anna Roberts' life implodes, an online search leads her to an ad for the ultimate dream job – management of a gorgeous castle on the shores of Lake Como, accommodation included. The only catch? Anna can't do it alone...

...With the last man on earth she'd choose!

The castle owners will only accept a couple as caretakers, which means Anna needs a man on her arm at the interview. Enter her neighbour, Jake Tucker. Though Anna and Jake have never seen eye-to-eye, Jake's had a rough few years and an escape to Italy sounds ideal. Yet, when they get the job and jet off, Anna and Jake face an unexpected challenge. Pretending to be a couple is difficult ... but pretending the tension simmering between them doesn't exist is quickly proving impossible!

Readers are loving Anna and Jake's romance:

'I see fake dating, I see Italy, I read...It felt like the author had gone into my brain and pretty much wrote the romantic comedy of my dreams' Catarina

'Everything I typically love in a romance book...full of sexual tension, snarky (but very witty) comments' Porshe

'Read this in one sitting...who wouldn't want to fall in love with the bad boy neighbour, a beautiful castle and an Italian coast?' Bee

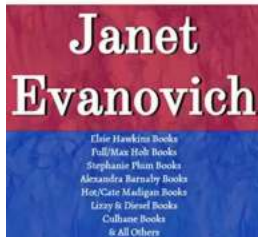

'A slow burn enemies to friends to lovers...it has all the best romance tropes' Ruby

'Reading this book felt like inhaling a breath of fresh air...It was so good, I really loved it' Meghan

‘To start off, ugh, I adore this cover!! My favorite types of novels are the ones that feel unique and fresh...this one was especially that’ Oniya

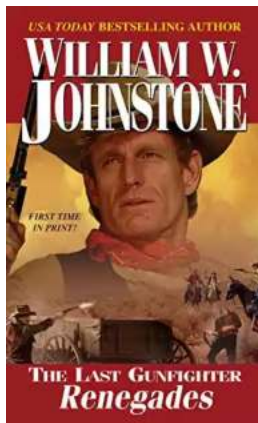

‘A fun fake relationship book with just a touch of enemies to lovers...plenty of spicy tension and good banter’ Meg
