Hayley -- Having both a father and brother who are in law enforcement, and overprotective, doesn't make it easy to date. Which is why I was still a virgin at eighteen and had never had a serious boyfriend. If I'd realized chasing Cuddles through the biker compound would result in the hottest night of my life, I might have fixed my hair and dressed a little better. Not that Hawk seemed to mind. He made my knees weak and blew my mind. I just didn't realize the night would end with a free gift with purchase -- one that's an eighteen-year-long commitment.

Hawk -- Never thought I'd make it to the age of forty without ever finding someone special. But I did. Then I met Hayley. She's the last woman I should fall for, but I can't seem to help myself. Too bad I figured it out after she disappeared. If I'd known our one night had repercussions, I'd have tried harder to find her. Finding out I have a daughter is the best and scariest thing, but it means I get what I want most. A family.

WARNING: Hawk is part of the Reckless Kings MC series and contains scenes of graphic violence and adult relationships, a couple who just can't seem to get it right, a troublesome raccoon, and some well-meaning meddlesome bikers who aren't above causing a bit of mischief.
