Whisper -- Abducted at a young age, I'd learned to live with the brutal man who'd kidnapped me. Quick with his fists, he made sure I knew to keep quiet and do as I was told. Until nearly a decade later. When Forge came to confront the man I'm forced to call "Dad," I knew it was my one chance. Saying my true name for the first time was both thrilling and scary. Going to live with a bunch of bikers was even more so. But I found out soon enough there wasn't anything Forge wouldn't do for me. I might have had a crush on him. Just a bit. Then my world imploded once more, and I ran. Now he's back, and I'm terrified and excited all at once.

Forge -- One of the boys who attacked Whisper is out on parole, and I know she's clueless. I only intended to make sure she was all right. How the hell I ended up claiming her son as my own, then marrying her, is beyond me. Can't say I'm too broken up about it. Whisper is all grown up, and I'd be lying if I said I didn't want her.

With her attacker's whereabouts unknown, and my club pissed at me, there's a lot on my plate. But I have to say, bringing Whisper and little Jacob home with me had to be the best idea I ever had. Now that they're mine, I'll do anything to hold onto them.
